

An illustration depicting a bathroom scene. A person is shown in a bathtub, appearing to be in distress with swirling eyes. The bathtub is filled with blue water. On the tiled floor, several circular icons labeled 'CO2' are scattered. To the left, a person in a grey protective suit and hood is holding a long black tube that extends towards the bathtub. In the background, a shower tray is visible. A central text box contains the title '防範 熱水器' (Prevention of Water Heater).
